

NEC expands Olympic and Paralympic Games Tokyo 2020 Sponsorship
- New Product Category "Private Network Radio Systems" -

Tokyo, February 18, 2020 - NEC Corporation (NEC; TSE: 6701), Gold Partner for the Olympic and Paralympic Games Tokyo 2020 (Tokyo 2020), announced today the conclusion of an additional agreement with the Tokyo Organising Committee of the Olympic and Paralympic Games. This agreement expands the sponsorship agreement to include the new product category of "Private Network Radio Systems".

Following this additional agreement, NEC is now a Tokyo 2020 Gold Partner in the three categories of Specialist Public Safety Equipment & Software (biometric authentication, behavior detection and analysis, and drones), Network Equipment (SDN*1, wired and wireless networks), and Private Network Radio Systems.

NEC will support the operation of Tokyo 2020 by utilizing various advanced ICT, including the provision of a face recognition system for identifying athletes, officials, other staff members and media representatives at venues of the Tokyo 2020 Games. NEC positions its safety business as an engine for global growth, and will continue to promote the NEC Safer Cities (*2) initiative.

*1) SDN: Software-Defined Networking; the system and architecture for dynamic control of networks through software

*2) NEC Safer Cities
